SURPRISE:

In happened in Gibraltar. Mildred Virginia Winslow and Edwin A. Ashcraft were married there June 19.

The bride is the daughter of the late L. Lanier Winslow, for many years in the diplomatic service. She was with the American Red Cross during World War II, serving in the Middle East and Europe, and was with the Central Intelligence Agency for five years. She was active in the United Givers Fund until last year, when she went to Spain to spend 10 months and became a bullfight aficionado.

Edwin Ashcraft, called "Squirrel" by his friends, is from Chicago and is with CIA.

When they return to Washington, they will live at 3900 Watson pl.
